New Revelations in the Rosenberg Case

Sunday, January 24th, 2010, 11:00 am
Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Miami
7701 SW 76th Ave.

Robert will outline the dramatic new developments that recently have come to light in the case of his parents, Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, and will discuss how the legacy of the case benefits progressive activists and their children today via the Rosenberg Fund for Children*.

Meet Robert and hear his inspiring story as he stops in Miami as part of a 20-city tour celebrating 20 years of the RFC's work helping the children of targeted activists in Florida and across the country. RFC beneficiary families have been active in the struggles to wage peace; preserve civil liberties; and organize on behalf of workers, prisoners, and others whose human rights are under threat. Congregation member Camilo Mejía, a local activist whose daughter receives support from the RFC, will also speak as part of the program.

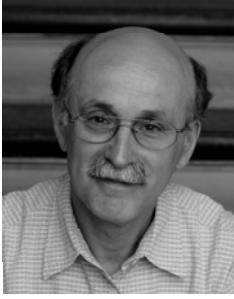

For more info contact Jeff at (305) 661-0023 or jefcar2@bellsouth.net.

Following the presentation, Robert Meeropol will answer questions and sign copies of his memoir, AN EXECUTION IN THE FAMILY
