

Table of Contents

Section 1: Letter & enclosures from Ethel Rosenberg's sons Michael and Robert Meeropol to President Obama (November 28, 2016)

- Citations i-v for 11.28.16 letter to President Obama
- Citations vi-xvi for 11.28.16 letter to President Obama
- Petition count and sample proclamation to President Obama 11.28.16
- Governor Dukakis 1977 proclamation re: Sacco & Vanzetti

Section 2: Statement from Ethel Rosenbergs' sons Michael and Robert Meeropol in front of the White House (December 1, 2016)

Section 3: Statements of Support from Current & Former Elected Officials

- Letter from Senator Elizabeth Warren (MA) to President Obama urging consideration of the request to exonerate Ethel Rosenberg (01.10.17).
- Letter from Senator Edward Markey (MA) to President Obama urging consideration of the request to exonerate Ethel Rosenberg (01.13.17)
- Letter from Congressman James P. McGovern (2nd District, MA) to President Obama calling on him to exonerate Ethel Rosenberg (11.30.16).
- Letter from Congressman Richard E. Neal (1st District, MA, Dean of the MA and New England delegations) to President Obama calling on him to exonerate Ethel Rosenberg (12.21.16).
- Statement from former MA governor Michael Dukakis calling on President Obama to exonerate Ethel Rosenberg (12.09.16), in the model of Dukakis' own 1977 proclamation regarding Sacco & Vanzetti.

Section 4: Supporting Materials from 2016

- Report from Seton Hall Law School Center for Policy and Research detailing the miscarriage of justice in the arrest, prosecution, and execution of Ethel Rosenberg, entitled "The Government's Hostage: The Conviction and Execution of Ethel Rosenberg," (12.14.16).
- Editorial from The Boston Globe editorial board calling for Ethel Rosenberg's exoneration (11.25.16).

Section 5: New Supporting Materials from 2021

- Review of Anne Sebba's 2021 biography of Ethel Rosenberg, "'Ethel Rosenberg: An American Tragedy" published in the September/October 2021 issue of Foreign Affairs;
<https://www.foreignaffairs.com/reviews/capsule-review/2021-08-24/ethel-rosenberg-american-tragedy>