The Board’s strong preference is to make grants for computers only if the proposed grantee is aged 10 or older. The Board’s consideration of requests for computers for children under age 10 will be dependent upon proof of a demonstrable educational and/or therapeutic need.

Replacement policy: The RFC will only award one computer or tablet for any individual in a three year period, unless extraordinary circumstances are indicated.